

Story starter!

- ▶ His eyes blinked. They were the only part of his body that he could move: he was entombed in ice, and had been for some time. The person that had put him here was far away by now.
- ▶ Glancing around in desperation he tried to move his aching body, but it was no good - there didn't seem to be a way out. Time was slipping away... He had to escape. If he didn't, then darkness would cover the world...

Sentence challenge!

- ▶ Can you write a sentence containing a relative clause?
- ▶ E.G. The figure, who found himself completely trapped, started to panic.
- ▶ It splits the main clause.
- ▶ The clause begins with 'who', 'which' or 'with'.
- ▶ It must supply an extra bit of information to the sentence.
- ▶ Commas should surround the clause.

Question time!

- ▶ Do you prefer summer or winter?
- ▶ Is it easier to keep yourself warm in a cold place, or keep yourself cold in a warm place?
- ▶ How would you feel if you could only move your eyes? What would life be like?
- ▶ Could you think of a way to communicate if you could only use your eyes?

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help?

- ▶ The man was scared. He tried to move but could not. His mind raced.

Perfect picture!

Imagine that the sun came out and all of the ice melted. What would the picture look like? Draw or describe what you have imagined.